DEDICATION

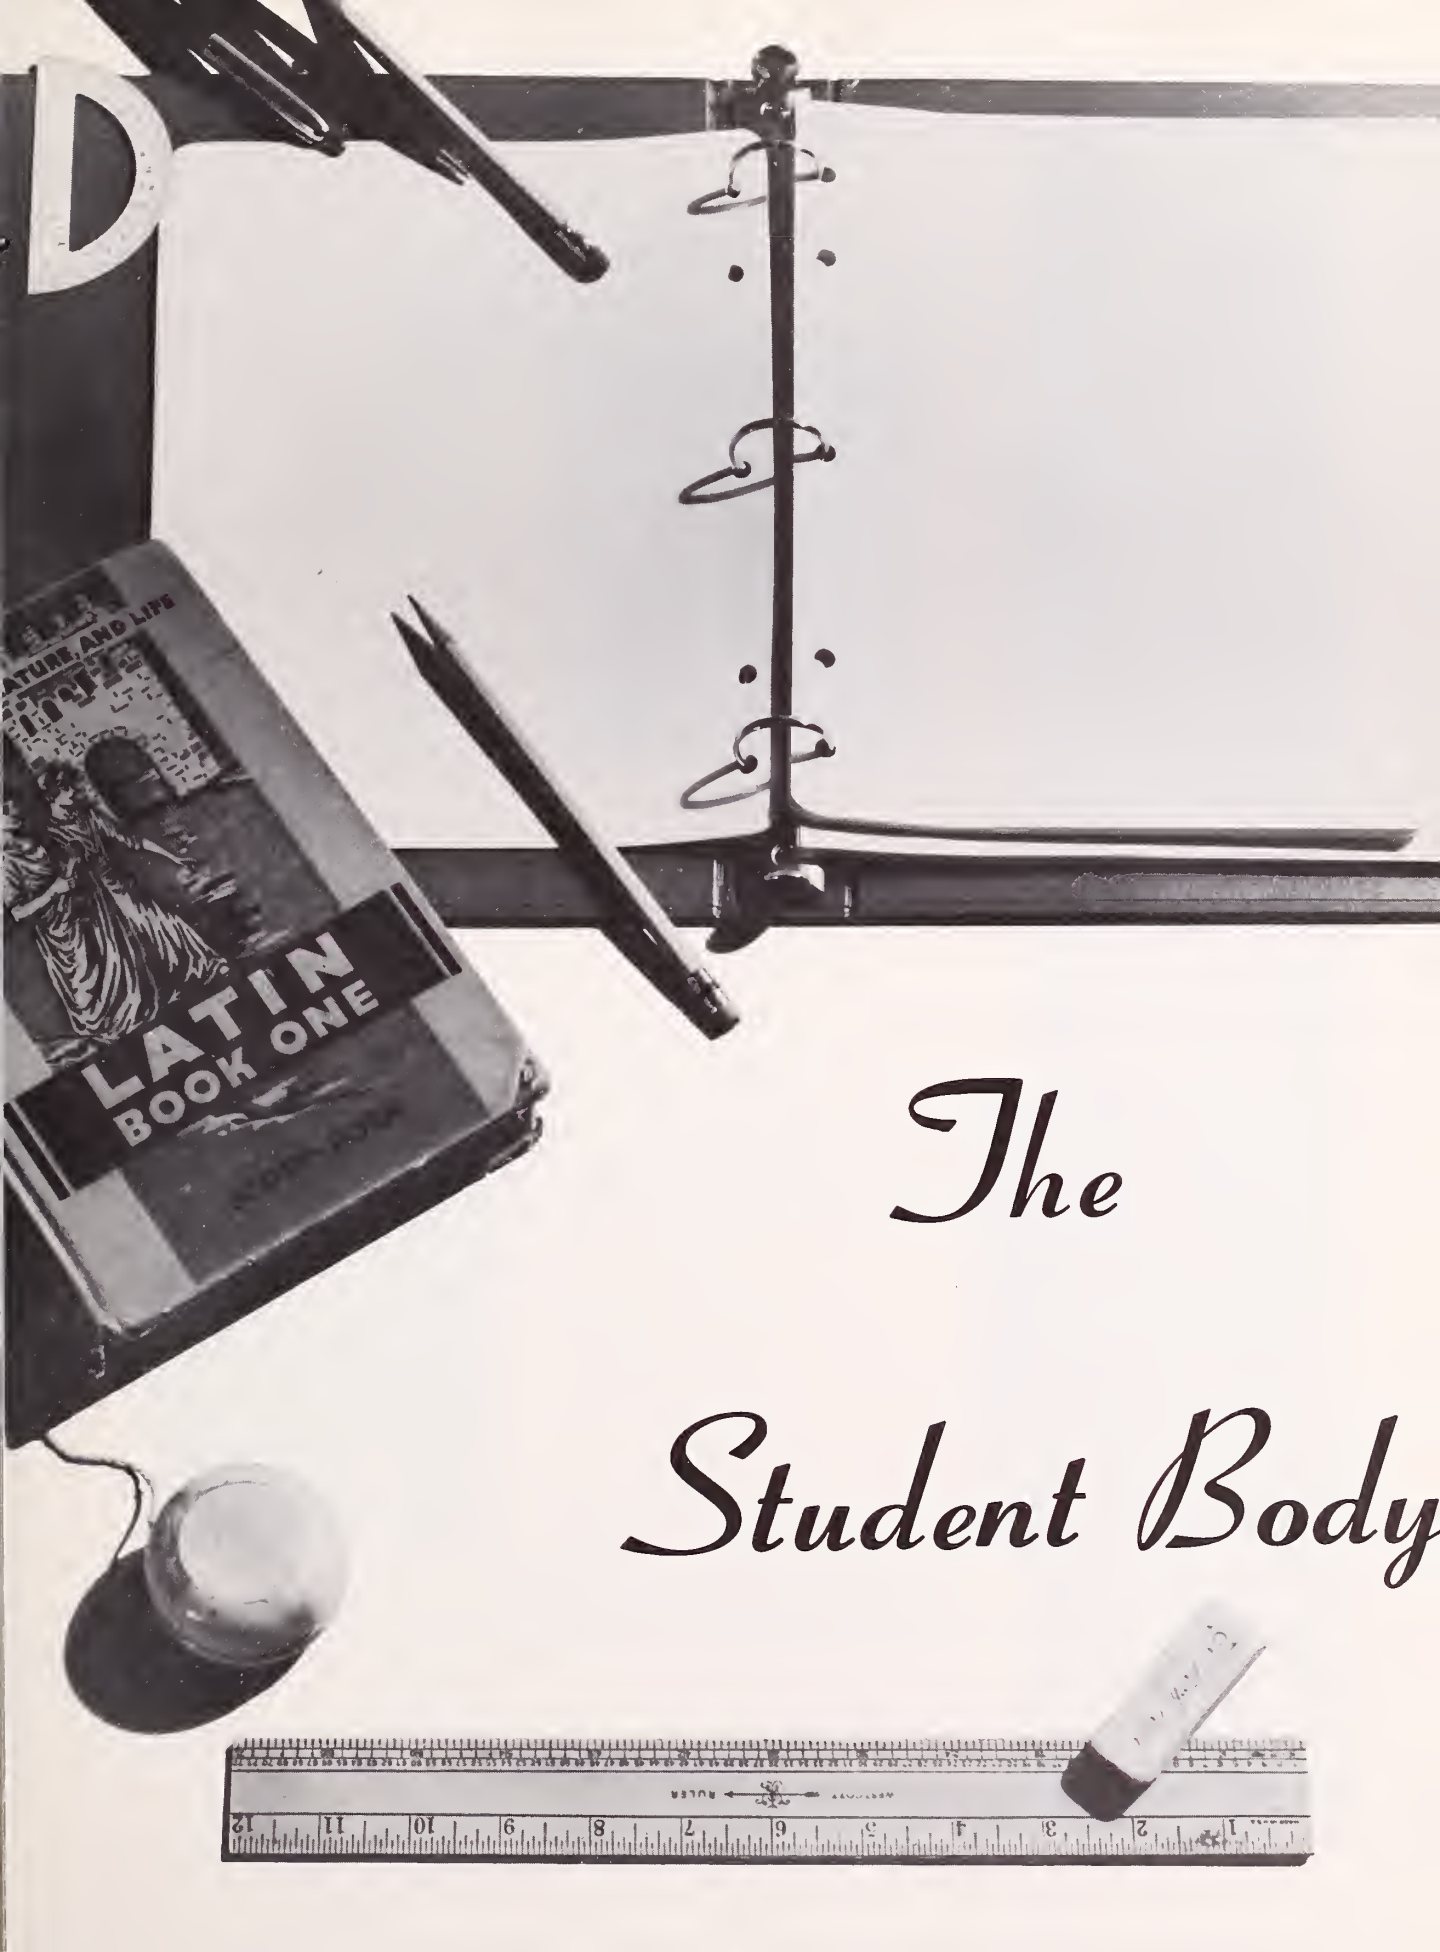

To a group whose members have worked so diligently through the years in support of this yearbook by giving appreciated financial help, to the ROTARY CLUB of Lexington, Virginia, we, the seniors of 1958-1959, are proud to dedicate our Crystal.

FOREWORD

Where many were, but few remain
Of old familiar things,
But seeing them to mind again
The last and absent brings.

Abraham Linclon

The 1958-1959 school session at Lexington High School has presented many and various incidents which will linger in the memory of every student. We, the Crystal Staff, have tried to preserve these for you, especially through emphasis on our academic program, a most important phase of school life. However, we feel that the additional club and sports' coverage serves to highlight our extra-curricular activities and complete a well-rounded year.

SENIOR HISTORY

It was five long years ago when we first entered the time-honored halls of Lexington High School. we

It was five long years ago when we first entered the time-honored halls of Lexington High School. We were only lowly eighth graders, but even then we looked forward to the friends we would make and the fun we would have in the years to come. We began our first year as LHS students by electing Anne Weaver President. Tom Adams and Gail Deaver, Vice-President and Secretary-Treasurer respectively, were chosen to assist Anne with her duties. Robert Carson was appointed to be our Honor Court representative.

We worked hard, and our eighth grade year passed quickly. When our freshman term began, Norma McCormick was elected President and Tom Adams Vice-President. Sally Foltz, the Secretary-Treasurer, collected dues for our fast-growing treasury. Lynne Barrett represented us on the Honor Court. As ninth graders, the privilege of joining clubs was given to us. Latin Club members Robert Carson, Sandra Ikenberry, Norma McCormick, Anne Weaver, and Betty Whitehurst represented the school at the Latin Tournament.

In 1956 we attained the rank of Sophomores, and we knew that the time when we would call ourselves seniors was drawing near. This year we elected Willard Scott President, Betty Whitehurst Vice-President, and Tom Adams Secretary-Treasurer. Anne Weaver served as our representative on the Honor Court.

Finally our junior year arrived when we were allowed to wear our class rings and to attend the prom at Natural Bridge in May. Besides working hard to earn money for our senior trip to Washington, we elected Betty Whitehurst President, Roger Baroody, Vice-President, and Carole Wright Secretary-Treasurer to lead us in our endeavors. For the first time we were accorded the honor of having two members of our class on the Honor Court, Anne Bennetch and Lynne Barrett.

Soon it was time to begin our final year at LHS. We proudly attended our first assembly and felt the admiring glances of our fellow students, for now we were SENIORS! To lead us through our last year we chose Willard Scott President, Sandra Ikenberry Vice-President, and Dee Riegel Secretary-Treasurer. Betty Whitehurst, Reid Swisher, and Roger Baroody represented us on the Honor Court.

Now we worked especially hard to earn money for our trip to Washington in April by sponsoring the Homecoming Dance and the Twirp-Week Dance and also by selling tickets to a special movie. After the trip, we attended the Junior-Senior Prom as the guests of honor.

Graduation time is almost here, and soon we must leave LHS. Many will attend college; others will enter various professions. Now as we say farewell, we wish to say thanks to the students and faculty, and we hope that the Class of '59 will remain long in your memory.

The enrollment of the 1958-59 junior class totaled sixty-nine, the largest in the history of Lexington High School. After organizing in September, they elected class officers and chose Johnny Welsh and Emily Foster to represent the juniors on the Honor Court.

In order to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom, dues for the year were set at one dollar per semester. They also had several money-making projects. Between Thanksgiving and Christmas the juniors sold tins of candy, which netted around $50. On December 19 they sponsored a very successful Christmas dance, which added more than $80 to the treasury.

The Sophomores entered school feeling rather important, but after a short time became just regular students struggling with "education." Meanwhile they elected their class officers and Percy Sensabaugh as their Honor Court Representative. It was decided that class dues would be a dollar and fifty cents to prepare them for their future trip to Washington, D.C.

This year has been packed full of fun for them, and they hope to keep playing their part in making the school "hop."

This year's freshman class entered school with a feeling of more prestige, and they participated in more L.H.S. activities. Since their four-year program has just begun, they haven't started any money-making projects but are planning ambitiously for the next three years. Gary Whitmore was elected to represent the freshmen on the Honor Court, and dues for the year were set at one dollar. Their other activities include electing junior varsity cheerleaders and joining several clubs which were not open to them last year.

Due to their scholastic achievements the preceding year, the 8th graders are walking the tradition-filled halls of L.H.S. with awe and amazement at this time.

Now, as they accumulate the knowledge needed for their future, their thoughts reach into the next four years when they will be permitted to join clubs and activities and take a more prominent role in school life.

The Lexington High School Band with an active membership of nineteen is under the leadership of Mr. Wayne Hager, the band's first full time director.

The band made its first public appearance of the season at a football game on October 10, 1958. Since there was an evident need for uniforms, the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Band Boosters Club started a drive for this purpose.

The group also participated in the All County Band Festival as well as all home football games and other sports' events.

1958 was the first year the band participated in the Lexington Christmas Parade, where they played Christmas carols on a Jaycee float. The band also presented a Christmas assembly for the student body.

In September a band was started at Ruffner School. This group is composed of twelve students who will join the high school band next year.

The Boys' Monogram Club has engaged in several activities and sponsored projects with the help of money earned by running the basketball concession stands. Among their accomplishments have been to buy monograms for boys who earned them in sports and gold miniatures for senior members of the club. They have also given financial help to the cheerleaders by buying them new skirts. Framing sports' pictures has been an important part of their program, as well as keeping a scrapbook of athletic events.

CHEERLEADERS

Janice Foltz, Gail Deaver, Lula Crist, Nancy Mabry, Sandra Marshall, mascot, Betty Crist, Becky Black, Laura Dod, Betty Cummings.

The 1958-59 cheerleaders were elected by the student body after participating in try-outs during an assembly. Nancy Mabry was then appointed head cheerleader by the principal.

Two projects were undertaken by this year's squad. They sold LHS pins and later took charge of the election for the Homecoming Queen. Each student was charged five cents to vote in this election in order to supplement the cheerleaders funds.

The honor of leading the Scarlet Hurricane through a victorious football season was bestowed upon these eight girls. However, support from the Pep Squad and the whole student body provided enthusiastic audience participation.

The Crafts Club reduced its membership to about twenty-five for the current school year. All the present members are seniors, juniors, or sophomores, freshmen having been eliminated because of the large size of the club. The privilege of joining will be extended to them in the future, however.

Club members have had projects concerning either leather or metal. Some of the items made were key cases, coin purses, moc-casins, ash trays and gun cases. Students who did not have special projects worked on articles to benefit both the school and the industrial arts shop.

The Lexington chapter of the Future Homemakers of America organized in October with thirty-two active members. Several projects were placed on their agenda including a bake sale at Leggett's and other money making activities.

Special emphasis was placed on the Christmas program this year when, for the first time, the girls prepared a Christmas basket along with the homerooms.

Various other interests of the club members were expressed through programs and projects during the year.

A Christmas Concert was presented for the student body on December 18 with the LHS band. The Glee Club also gave a Spring Concert and sang for Baccalaureate and Graduation Exercises.

Judy Ayers, Nellie Clark, Ann Johnson, Julia Lewis, and Elizabeth Smith were chosen as representatives to the All State Chorus in Waynesboro.

This year Lexington High School's eight member judiciary body has been especially active. In addition to executing their routine duty of trying cases, they have made posters concerning honesty in school which were displayed prior to second semester exams.

Special emphasis was placed on acquainting the eighth-graders with the school's honor system--its purpose, its operation, and each student's part in it. This was accomplished through short talks made to the three eighth grade homerooms by Honor Court members.

As all the members of this year's court had never served before, the advice and guidance of Miss Hamilton, the adult supervisor, proved invaluable in helping the group carry out its duties.

The chief requirement for membership is an "A" or "B" average on the first or second semester in either physics or chemistry.

The Physics-Chemistry Honor Society is affiliated with the science clubs of America and The Virginia Junior Academy of Sciences.

Miss Elizabeth Dunlap has served as the faculty advisor to this group since its organization in 1949.

The "Scarletter," L.H.S.'s four-page newspaper, is published once a month. The paper was financed this year by advertisements from local merchants, student subscriptions, and a square dance which the staff sponsored.

A few changes have been made by this year's staff including the following: one paper devoted entirely to seniors, with the exclusion of senior personalities from other issues; the exclusion of a gossip column which was replaced by other feature articles; and the inclusion of a sports page with regular sports columns.

The staff is deeply indebted to its faculty advisors, Mrs. W. K. McHenry and Mr. Edward Harlow and to the "County News" which prints the "Scarletter."

Programs have also included discussions and experiments presented by some of the club's members.

A special Thanksgiving program emphasized foods, and Roman cake was served; foods on display were labeled with Latin names. To complete their activities, these students designed place cards for the Classical Association meeting, made Latin Christmas cards and crossword puzzles.

This year's Teenactors have endeavored in many ways to improve over past years. Their main objective was to present more than the usual one play of the year. They surpassed their hopes by presenting three plays under the supervision of a new director, Mr. Pierce Lambert.

The second play, "Three On a Bench" was presented at a play festival and received superior rating to further their successful year.

BASKETBALL

Although the Hurricanes faced a terrific rebuilding job, they came from the depths of defeat to the glory of victory. The nucleus of Tommy Black, Tommy Kirkpatrick and Yodie Hamric was used to the fullest extent as Coach Brewbaker whipped the team into shape and a tournament position.

Several games were special thrillers for LHS fans. The home game with Robert E. Lee High School of Staunton was particularly exciting, for although the final score was 63-58 against the Hurricane, the boys displayed great skill and spirit throughout the game. The hard-fought game at Natural Bridge clinched a place in the tournament for Lexington's Big Red.

The 1958-59 Junior Varsity under the supervision of Coach Ernest Baker showed great form throughout the season. If this group fulfills present expectations, LHS can look forward to a fine varsity in the coming years.

Tommy Black racks up another score for the Scarlett Hurricanes in the Wilson Memorial game.

1958 TRACK

The Scarlet Hurricane lived up to its name as the LHS contestants dominated the dashes at the District V Track Meet in April.

Mac Brownlee finished second in the mile with Clyde Hartless coming in third. John Leary won the 440 yard dash, and Jimmy Chittum finished second in the broad jump and the 100 yard dash, which Leon Hartless won. Leon also came in first in the 220 yard dash. At the final count the Big Red captured second place in the meet.

Four boys, John Leary, Leon Hartless, Mac Brownlee and Jimmy Chittum, were sent to the State Group II meet in May where they represented LHS and District V very successfully. Leon Hartless came in 2nd for the 100 yard dash, receiving a medal for his achievement.

Ried Swisher practices for spring District V meet.

The Scarlet Hurricane posted one of its best seasonal records this year by finishing second in District V with a 12 won-2 lost slate. The main factor for the successful season was a fine team effort with Leon Hartless, Darrell Cauley and Tommy Black playing superb ball in the clutches.

The Hurricane games with arch-rival Buena Vista provided a majority of the thrills and excitement of the season. Lexington defeated Buena Vista 2-1 in ten innings, but lost a heartbreaker in the return engagement 4-3 in eleven innings, thus ceding the championship to Buena Vista

FOOTBALL, DISTRICT "V" CHAMPS

Two games especially emphasized the Big Red's ability. In beating Waynesboro 19-14, both offense and defense were at their best with Reid Swisher scoring all the points for Lexington. Winning the Buena Vista game clinched the championship and ended a fine season for the 1958 team.

Reid Swisher scored a total of ninety-nine points, second high in the district this season. Selected to the All-District Team were Tommy Kirkpatrick, Tommy Black, Reid Swisher, and Darrell Cauley.
